I Am Poem

I Am smart and funny
I wonder why people are so mean
I hear water running
I see my cats
I want $1,000,000
I Am smart and funny
I pretend I am a teacher
I feel my cats fur
I touch my cats fur
I worry about people at school
I cry when people are mean to me
I Am smart and funny
I understand that what people say is not true
I believe that one day everybody will be nice to me
I dream that one day I will have $1,000,000
I try to do my work and keep my grades up at school
I hope people are nice to me
I Am smart and funny
